OAKLEY NEWS

Some of you will have seen now that our practice manager Danielle has rejoined our team. Danielle returned to us in April after a three year break to have her children. She now balances work with looking after her two little girls Jasmine and Alice. Danielle is usually on the front desk and available to answer any queries you may have.

welcome

We would like to say a big welcome to all of our new patients, In the last couple of months we have had over 50 new patients, far too many for us to name them all but we welcome you here and thank you for choosing us.

Thank you

We would like to thank our existing patients for referring new patients to us..

Big thanks to...

Patient testimonial

If any of your friends or family has fears about coming to the dentist they should read this...

Pass it on

"Wow! I can't even believe I am at the point where I can write a very very positive review about a dentist. This is something I thought would never happen, since I first admitted to myself I needed to go to the dentist after not going for years I have suffered massive anxiety and panic....but I then found Oakley. I completed an online questionnaire which asked me all about my fears and anxieties about the dentist in general which I found comforting as I knew the dental team would know what to expect when they met me. My first appointment was a brief consultation and Steve (the dentist) came to speak to me out of uniform to make me feel at ease, but even the first appointment was hard I cried all the way through it and never ever thought I could do it. The staff are so welcoming and approachable. Steve always assured me I would be looked after and well cared for and this I can wholeheartedly vouch for. Since that first appointment I have been going to Steve and his team for over 6 months, each time I had treatment I was sedated due to my fears but this made a dental visit far from a scary task. I am now at the point I can go to the dentist alone for a short appointment without my husband and the team make me feel so welcome. Steve always assures me they will take care of me and I have no reason to doubt this. I am coming up to my first regular appointment which I am going to do alone as I know now I can go to the dentist and feel at ease and not under pressure or panic. Steve and his team have made me so much more confident and have allowed me to face my fear at a slow pace. I am now a regular and will be keeping up with all my appointments. I cannot recommend this place highly enough; I have not got enough nice words in my vocabulary for them. Thank you to Steve and his whole team getting me where I am today."

Thank you Leann.

THE WAND

Did you know you could experience PAIN FREE anesthesia?

The wand was developed to replace the traditional syringe in dentistry.

- The wand gives a supply of anesthetic in a slow comfortable manner.
- The wand works more effectively, resulting in a more pleasant experience.
 - Ask Steven or any team member about THE WAND
